

Sign up for “FlashAlert.net”

Get one consistent message via email or by text on your cell phone about emergency information. FlashNews.net is now being extended directly to the public through a system called “FlashAlert.net.” FlashAlert.net is a companion website where parents, employees, etc. can register their email and/or cell phone text message addresses and receive Grapeview’s emergency messages at the same time the media gets them. There is no cost to you as a Grapeview parent for this service. Grapeview parents and community members can self-register to www.FlashAlert.net with two options. To register:

Option 1	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Go to the Grapeview web site at www.gsd54.org ,</li> <li>2.
